

Conference, Exhibition and Award Show: There's something for everybody at the animago 2019!

What do Blow Studio, Digid Pictures, Framestore, Mackevision, MPC Film, Pixar Animation Studios, Pixomondo, Rise FX, Sony Pictures Imageworks, The Mill, Scanline VFX und Weta Digital have in common?

Right! They and many many more are part of the animago CONFERENCE 2019!

Exciting presentations on business, technology and software as well as making-ofs with lots of background information on current cinema productions are part of this year's program. Four days of pure know-how await the visitors. In addition to the festive award ceremony of the animago AWARD 2019 and interesting exhibitors, the announced lectures in particular cast their shadow before.

Our team was diligent and prepared over 70 lectures from all industry relevant areas for you. More than 40 speakers talk about current trends and developments, grant insights and reveal their latest tools and tricks.

Just a few of the many highlights of the conference program:

- Tamás Varga (Digid Pictures) talks about the characters of the episode „The Secret War“ from the Netflix series „Love, Death & Robots“
- Mohsen Mousavi (Scanline VFX) goes into detail at „Game of Thrones: The extraordinary visual effects of the final season“
- Arslan Elver (Framestore) gives unique insights in his talk „Animation for Disney's 'Christopher Robin'“
- El Suliman (Moving Picture Company) talks about his work at one of the most successful animation films in 2019 in „MPC Film presents animating 'The Lion King'“

The whole conference program can be found here: www.animago.com/en/animago2019/program

Not to be missed is the official animago AWARD ceremony on the evening of 2 November. This year, more than 1,100 submissions from 62 countries across the globe were submitted, and during the gala the sought-after animago trophies will be awarded to the creators of the best productions in 10 categories – from feature film productions to motion design. Find the nominated works here: www.animago.com/en/animago2019/nominations

Last but not least the animago EXHIBITION features renowned companies and universities like Wacom, Chaosgroup and MD.H with their products, technologies and services, looking forward to numerous guests and questions.
